

WOMAN'S PARTY

Charges Its Leaders With Misrepresentation That Extended to President

By the Associated Press
Washington, Sept. 27.—When the Senate today resumed consideration of the woman's suffrage resolution, with its supporters admittedly at least one vote short of the two-thirds necessary for adoption, tension was increased by a bitter partisan political exchange.

Senator Pittman, of Nevada, Democrat, started the trouble when the resolution came up after an hour's delay. He made a sharp attack on the National Woman's party, the militant branch, charging it with favoring Republicanism with misrepresentation, and with Democrats, including the President, toward the resolution.

Senator Pittman declared the woman's party had charged the Republican party with misrepresentation, and that the Senate suffrage committee were responsible for delaying a vote.

As the Nevada Senator began, members of the woman's party, who had been waiting for an opportunity to speak, rose in a body and began shouting and cheering.

Senator Pittman declared the woman's party had charged the Republican party with misrepresentation, and that the Senate suffrage committee were responsible for delaying a vote.

As the Nevada Senator began, members of the woman's party, who had been waiting for an opportunity to speak, rose in a body and began shouting and cheering.

Senator Pittman declared the woman's party had charged the Republican party with misrepresentation, and that the Senate suffrage committee were responsible for delaying a vote.

As the Nevada Senator began, members of the woman's party, who had been waiting for an opportunity to speak, rose in a body and began shouting and cheering.

WHERE THE ALLIES ARE STRIKING ON WESTERN FRONT

NEW BRITISH DRIVE
The American army on the Verdun front, Sept. 26-27 (P. M. delayed).—The American troops took the line of the Meuse to the Moselle, thus adding to the German uncertainty as to just where the attack was to be made. Fifteen or twenty miles were made deep into the enemy lines in this region. The attack was suddenly made by the American army, which was concentrated in the Metz sector.

By the Associated Press
The work of the tanks, which were manned by French and Americans, brought praise from the staff officers. The tanks were used to break through the enemy's defenses and to push forward the line of the Meuse to the Moselle, thus adding to the German uncertainty as to just where the attack was to be made.

By the Associated Press
The work of the tanks, which were manned by French and Americans, brought praise from the staff officers. The tanks were used to break through the enemy's defenses and to push forward the line of the Meuse to the Moselle, thus adding to the German uncertainty as to just where the attack was to be made.

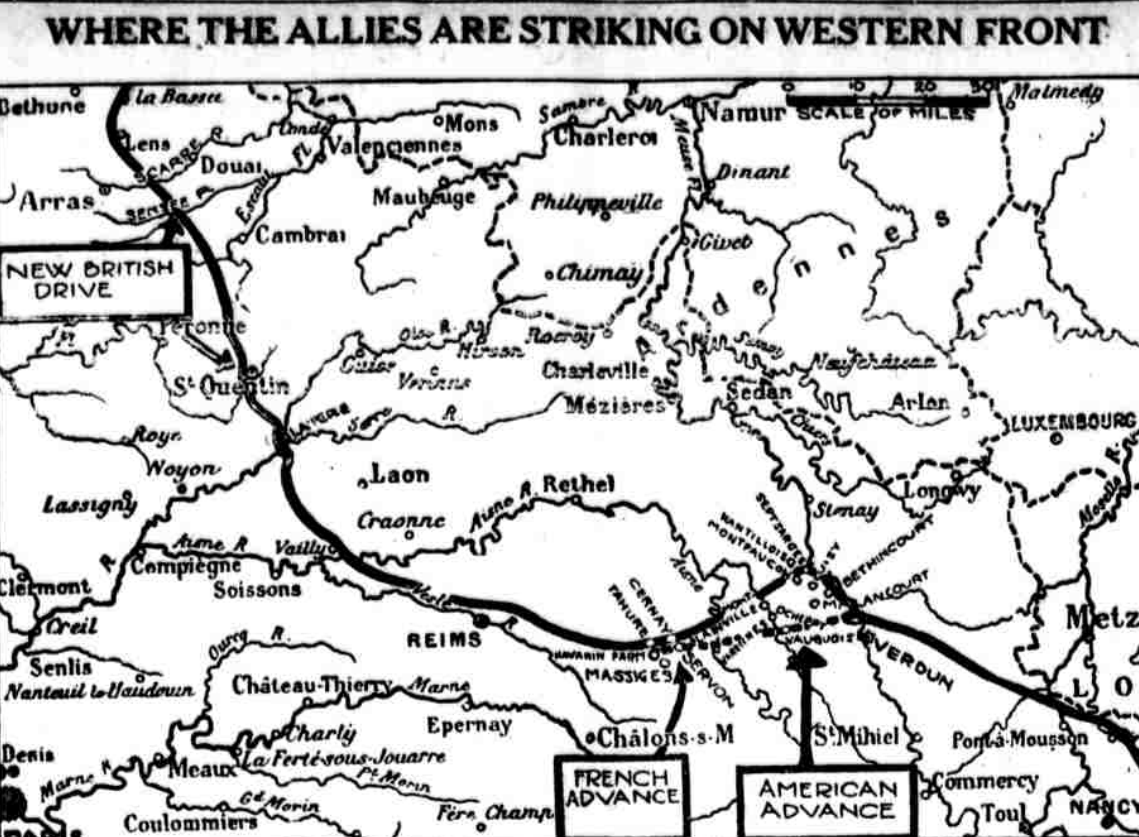

By the Associated Press
The work of the tanks, which were manned by French and Americans, brought praise from the staff officers. The tanks were used to break through the enemy's defenses and to push forward the line of the Meuse to the Moselle, thus adding to the German uncertainty as to just where the attack was to be made.

By the Associated Press
The work of the tanks, which were manned by French and Americans, brought praise from the staff officers. The tanks were used to break through the enemy's defenses and to push forward the line of the Meuse to the Moselle, thus adding to the German uncertainty as to just where the attack was to be made.

By the Associated Press
The work of the tanks, which were manned by French and Americans, brought praise from the staff officers. The tanks were used to break through the enemy's defenses and to push forward the line of the Meuse to the Moselle, thus adding to the German uncertainty as to just where the attack was to be made.

By the Associated Press
The work of the tanks, which were manned by French and Americans, brought praise from the staff officers. The tanks were used to break through the enemy's defenses and to push forward the line of the Meuse to the Moselle, thus adding to the German uncertainty as to just where the attack was to be made.

By the Associated Press
The work of the tanks, which were manned by French and Americans, brought praise from the staff officers. The tanks were used to break through the enemy's defenses and to push forward the line of the Meuse to the Moselle, thus adding to the German uncertainty as to just where the attack was to be made.

Bulgaria Asks For an Armistice

Continued from Page One
been set on foot. (This would seem to indicate that a revolution is in progress in Bulgaria.)

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Washington, Sept. 27.—Reports through German channels that Bulgaria has asked an armistice as a result of the German defeat in the Balkans, and that the Bulgarian army has been completely destroyed, have been received with surprise here today.

By the United Press
Washington, Sept. 27.—Reports through German channels that Bulgaria has asked an armistice as a result of the German defeat in the Balkans, and that the Bulgarian army has been completely destroyed, have been received with surprise here today.

By the United Press
Washington, Sept. 27.—Reports through German channels that Bulgaria has asked an armistice as a result of the German defeat in the Balkans, and that the Bulgarian army has been completely destroyed, have been received with surprise here today.

By the United Press
Washington, Sept. 27.—Reports through German channels that Bulgaria has asked an armistice as a result of the German defeat in the Balkans, and that the Bulgarian army has been completely destroyed, have been received with surprise here today.

By the United Press
Washington, Sept. 27.—Reports through German channels that Bulgaria has asked an armistice as a result of the German defeat in the Balkans, and that the Bulgarian army has been completely destroyed, have been received with surprise here today.

Kaiser Hides in Cellar to Avoid Allies' Bombs

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

11 Heroes From Here Give Lives in France

Continued from Page One
was received by his father, Daniel Ryder, 3031 C street, but no details were given. The young man was born and brought up in Frankford and was well known in that section.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

PLEDGES TO LOAN NOW $15,000,000

Pennsylvania Company Subscribes $5,000,000, Penn Mutual $3,500,000

Philadelphia's Quota Set at $259,198,000 and This District's $516,800,000

Three new subscriptions to the fourth Liberty Loan in the Philadelphia district, totaling $7,000,000, were announced today. They swell the total of pre-campaign pledges to more than $15,000,000.

Philadelphia's quota for the fourth loan has been set at $259,198,000. The quota for the entire district, including the State of Pennsylvania, all of New Jersey, and all of Delaware, is $516,800,000.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

INFLUENZA HALTS 3090 SELECTIVES

Malady's Presence Delays Departure of City's Camp Quotas

Three new subscriptions to the fourth Liberty Loan in the Philadelphia district, totaling $7,000,000, were announced today. They swell the total of pre-campaign pledges to more than $15,000,000.

Philadelphia's quota for the fourth loan has been set at $259,198,000. The quota for the entire district, including the State of Pennsylvania, all of New Jersey, and all of Delaware, is $516,800,000.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

Mayor to Defy Call To Answer Charge

Continued from Page One
When Biddle never took her seat with the new board, and her friends today explain that she accepted the place under a misapprehension, which she was quick to remedy. When asked today to confirm a rumor that she would decline to serve along with the Smith-Vare appointees picked to succeed Rabbi Henry Berkowitz, William A. Stecher and Miss Sophia L. Rose, Mrs. Biddle said:

"It is true that I have resigned. I sent my resignation to Mayor Smith on Tuesday last. I have not heard from him. Friends of mine in the Civic Club, of which I have the honor of being president, told me of conditions in the city board and I promptly sent my resignation. In accepting a place on the Board of Recreation I had hoped to aid in the work of giving pleasure and profit to children but under conditions this would hardly be possible."

When asked if the Civic Club contemplated holding a special meeting to endorse the action of the Playgrounds Association in condemning Mayor Smith for political activity in connection with the appointment of Gudehus, Mrs. Biddle said:

"I do not believe that such action is necessary. Members of the Civic Club know and understand the situation, and many of them are in sympathy with the move of the Playgrounds Association."

Mayor Smith today refused to discuss the resignation of Mrs. Biddle or the warrant for his arrest mailed to him following the action of Otto T. Mallory in charging him with misconduct in office in connection with the civil service methods by which Gudehus was appointed.

To all inquiries he replied, "I have nothing to say."

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.

By the United Press
Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar in Mannheim during a recent raid by the Allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here state.